Instructor's Course Requirements

I. Grade Considerations

- A. If you expect to transfer this course, you generally must make a C or better.

II. Online Components and Lecture Recordings

- A. The components of this course are online and require you to access them by computer or smartphone. While you may be able to use your smartphone for many things, you will need to have access to a computer.
- B. If you are local, please remember that the computer labs not only house computers, but also are staffed by people who are knowledgeable and there to help you. Additionally, the labs have a limited number of laptops you can check out. EPCC computer lab locations and hours.
- C. On Mondays (usually) I post "What's Going On" videos that orient you to key things going on during the week. These are important. I will post them on the course's Announcements/Home page. Additionally, the link to the class playlist is posted on our Blackboard classroom menu. You can also visit my YouTube channel, or just search YouTube for kelli.ninja
- D. Blackboard Ally
 - 1. You can now download your course files in different formats that fit your device, need, and learning preference. Click the "A download" icon next to your course files to view "Alternative Formats" of your course files. The file may take a few minutes to download, so continue with your work while you wait. The quality of the alternative formats can vary based on the original file, so if something looks out of place, consult the original file. Depending on the type of file, you will see the following options:
 - a) An OCR'd PDF improves the quality of scanned PDFs
 - b) A Tagged PDF for Word and PowerPoint documents or for improved navigation with screen readers
 - c) An HTML version that will be a simple and responsive to mobile devices with zoom-in capabilities
 - d) An ePub version for use with ePub readers that allows for font customization, contrast adjustment, and annotation/highlighting
 - e) An Electronic Braille version for your Refreshable Braille Display

- f) An Audio MP3 for listening to your content on the go
2. Contact the EPCC Blackboard Help Desk at 1-888-296-0863 if you need assistance with alternative formats.

III. Texts and Materials

- A. Required Text Books:
 1. A Writer's Reference with Writing about Literature, 9th edition. Diana Hacker, ISBN: 978-1319133054
- B. Supplements
 1. My website: www.kelli.ninja
 2. Writing down the Basics.
 - a) Available on my website as a pdf download, or for purchase as a print out at the TM ISC (Room 1550) for a minimal price.
- C. Materials
 1. Access to the internet.
 2. Access to Microsoft Word
 3. If you need a copy of Microsoft Office, you can get Microsoft 365 free by signing up with your EPCC email address.
 4. If you use Apple Pages or Word for Apple, make sure to save your documents in Word format: doc or docx. See this link for help with that.

IV. Attendance: (5% of total grade)

- A. Attendance is expected and essential in any classroom environment. Attendance is especially important in the online environment.
- B. Drops for Non-Attendance
 1. If you have not logged in within the first two weeks of the course, I will drop you.
- C. If you do not participate in class for two consecutive weeks without notifying me and discussing your situation, I may drop you.
- D. If you anticipate being without computer access for a week or more (military, work, or out-of-town commitment), you must contact me at least a week beforehand so that we can work out a schedule, otherwise I may drop you.
- E. I will only work out an alternate schedule for you if you are in good standing (getting your work done and participating in the course).
- F. We follow the college schedule. Look ahead to make plans as needed. I'm more than willing to work with you to get things done early when possible.
- G. It is your responsibility to let me know if your name ever disappears from Blackboard or Banner. Your name not being there indicates a registration problem you need to deal with quickly. I can help direct you to staff who can assist you with those issues.
- H. Ultimately, it is your responsibility to drop the course if you are not going to be able to complete it.
- I. If I do not drop you and you miss more than one-fourth of the class, your final grade will be dropped by one letter grade.

V. Participation: (5% of total grade)

- A. Part of your grade is based on participation in class discussions and collaborative work. If you expect to accomplish passing level writing by the end of the semester, it is important for you to actively participate in class.
 - 1. Be prepared for class.
 - 2. Read all assignments and submit your assignments on time.
 - 3. Be respectful of your peers and instructor at all times.
 - 4. Avoid making prejudicial remarks regarding anyone's race, ethnicity, social class, gender, sexual orientation, physical appearance, age, disability, or any other kinds of differences. Avoid activities that could be perceived as sexual harassment.
 - a) That does not mean we do not discuss these issues; it just means we do so respectfully.
 - 5. Follow the guidelines of netiquette.
 - 6. I will drop you for disorderly conduct, abusive or disruptive behavior as defined in the student code of conduct, or if your behavior disrupts the learning environment. This includes but is not limited by items on the list above.
 - 7. Most importantly, come to class with a good attitude, a sense of humor, and a willingness to work and learn.

VI. Cheating, Plagiarism, and Collusion

- A. Cheating, plagiarism, and collusion are both intellectual theft and academic dishonesty. They will not be tolerated in this class.
- B. Any instance of cheating, plagiarism, or collusion will result in failure of the course. This does not negate your right of appeal as described in the Student Handbook.

VII. Assignments

- A. All work should be typed and formatted according to standard formatting we will study in class.
- B. Course Work (15% of grade)
 - 1. I may not accept homework that that does not meet required standards of appearance or format which we will study in class.
- C. Quizzes
 - 1. Quizzes cover the assigned readings for the week.
 - 2. For technical problems with Blackboard, contact the EPCC Help Desk (24/7) at 888-296-0863
 - 3. You should use the same login information you use to login for registration
 - 4. Quizzes will close at midnight on Monday of most weeks. See the schedule for dates and times.
 - 5. You cannot make up missed quizzes, however, you can work ahead.
 - 6. All Exams (research, film, and fiction) count twice in this section.

D. Homework

1. You will have homework (prewritings) with the research project. The assigned due dates are listed on the schedule. Late policy applies. (See section IX.)
2. With each critical essay, you will have an assigned homework. This is due on the date of the in-class essay. It cannot be turned in after that date.

E. Discussion

1. Each week you will have a discussion response due in the Weekly Discussions section on Blackboard.
2. These cannot be re-created and therefore cannot be made up after the due date.
3. When you participate in group discussions, you should post your thoughts, and then respond to at least one other classmate's ideas.
4. I am looking for thoughtful responses in the conversation on a consistent basis. (80% for your original post/20% for response to classmate)
5. This is a public discussion forum, so the whole class is participating. You need to reply thoughtfully to the discussion questions and to the responses your peers post; merely saying "I agree" is not enough. Explain your responses.
6. You should participate in a timely manner. The class works best when everyone works together. If you wait until the last minute, you are not really participating and your classmates have no obligation to respond to your posts at the last minute.
7. When communicating online, remember that you convey tone with word choice and the use of emoticons, bold, all caps, etc. Be polite, proofread your writing, and do not write in all caps.
8. Pay attention to your grammar and spelling.

F. Essays (75% of grade)

1. Essays should be turned in by the due date. Essays and their accompanying assignments should be formatted according to the styles studied in class.
2. Research Project
 - a) The researched essay will count as 30% of your total grade.
 - b) If you do not have your workshop draft ready for discussion on the due date or you do not turn in your first draft of your research paper within the accepted dates, you will be dropped from the course.
 - c) The related assignments will count as 20% of your total grade.
 - (1) Related assignments include the topic questions, source prewritings, Safe Assign, and the workshop draft.
3. Critical Essays
 - a) You will write two critical essays. The critical essays will count as 25% of the total grade.

VIII. Essay Extra Credit

- A. You may earn up to 5 extra credit points on prewritings and essays if you go to the writing center either in person or online. (Consult with me if you use the online writing center.)
- B. Access the rules for essay extra credit on my Extra Credit webpage, and carefully read the rules and instructions.
- C. If you take your first prewriting to the writing center, you may earn up to 10 extra credit points. This only applies to Research Prewriting.

IX. Late Work

- A. Each assignment will have a specified due date and will be due on that date. It is important that you attend and meet all deadlines.
- B. Quizzes cannot be done after the due date (see above)
- C. In general, I will not accept work that is more than five (5) days late. In addition, you will lose five (5) points for each day the work is late. Some assignments have different late-work periods. Make sure to read carefully.
- D. You will not receive the feedback you would have gotten had the assignment been submitted on time.
- E. The only time I will accept works beyond the late due date is if you meet the following conditions
 - 1. Your work is late due to catastrophic circumstances beyond your control. (Unexpected injury, a serious auto accident, etc. It must be credibly documented.)
 - 2. You must be in good standing in the class at the time of the incident. (Consistent attendance, work, and participation.)
 - 3. You must notify me as soon as possible and arrange to meet with me to discuss plans for catching up. (In extreme circumstances, have someone notify me on your behalf.)
 - 4. I reserve the right to determine whether or not your circumstance qualifies for this exception and whether or not you meet the conditions listed above.
- F. NO LATE WORK WILL BE ACCEPTED DURING FINALS WEEK.

X. Course Evaluation

- A. In order to earn a passing grade of C you must attend class, participate in class activities, and complete assignments at a minimal level of proficiency. Higher grades will require a more noteworthy performance on your part. As we go through the course, we will review the specific criteria for each assignment; however below is a breakdown of points in the class. We will follow a traditional grade scale, dispersed as follows.

Point Distribution		Grade Scale
Attendance	5%	A	90-100+
Participation	5%	B	80-89
Course Work	15%	C	70-79
Research Assignments	20%	D	60-69
Research Essay	30%	F	0-59
Critical Essays	25%

XI. Pursuit of Course Objectives

- A. If you fail to complete at least half of class work or attend more than half the class meetings before the drop date, it will be assumed that you have ceased to pursue the objectives of the course and you will be dropped from the course.

XII. Record-Keeping

- A. Keep copies of all the work you do for this class until final grades have been posted. In the event of fire, theft, or loss of my grade book, you may need to produce all work you've done. Additionally, we may have projects that require you to use past course work. Make sure to save your major writing assignments, and as a backup, I suggest you email a copy of them to yourself or use some other method to assure you have an extra copy.

XIII. Literary Content

- A. Some of the works we read or watch in this course may contain racial slurs, curse words, nudity, sexual situations, drug use, violence, or adult situations. As adults and students of literature, we need to study these in their context and work to understand the underlying themes or points made by employing these techniques.

XIV. Schedule

- A. The schedule is attached at the end of this handout and is given on Blackboard under the Weekly Assignments link.
- B. The schedule is tentative and subject to change. I will change it only to best support our learning throughout the semester. If there are any major changes to the schedule, I'll give those to you in writing. Minor changes will be announced on Blackboard.

XV. Contacting Me

- A. All of my contact information is listed on the first page of this syllabus and in our Blackboard classroom.
- B. Office Hours
 1. Please make use of my office hours to come see me. Those are times set aside for addressing questions you have.

2. If you cannot make it to my office hours, let me know and we can schedule a time that works for both of us.
3. If I must cancel my office hours for a meeting, appointment, or other business, I will do my best to let you know beforehand.

C. Email

1. I expect you to use your EPCC account for all communication related to your course work. I do, however, understand that you may need to use an alternate email if the college email isn't working.
2. When you email me, or any of your teachers for that matter, you need to make sure that you identify who you are and which class you're in.
3. Always include a subject line and a message. Any attachment sent without a subject line and message will be deleted.
4. Use your class days and time in the subject line. For example, "1302 Online" is fine.
5. Read about these 10 best email practices.
6. As this class is practice in your professional communication, I expect you to use proper English—no text-speak. You do not need to be overly formal, but proofread your writing and state your message clearly.
7. I will always do my best to respond to you in a timely manner, but remember that I teach a number of other classes in addition to my other duties at the college. I generally don't check email on weekends.

D. Phone

1. Feel free to call me at my office. If I am not in, leave your name, the course you're in (MWF 11 am, MW 1 pm, etc.) and a number I can call you back at. I will return your phone call as soon as possible.
2. Please remember that even if you call during office hours I may be working with another student, so please leave a number and brief message. I will call you back as soon as I can.

XVI. Agreement to Instructor Policies

- A. By continuing to be enrolled in this class, you are indicating that you understand and accept the class policies as explained above.

I DO NOT ACCEPT: "I don't know how to do this."

You are here to learn and experience new things.

I RESPECT: "I wasn't sure how to do this, but I tried."

It is only by trying that you get an opportunity to succeed.

I. Catalog Description

Continues intensive study of and practice in the strategies and techniques for developing research-based expository and persuasive texts. Emphasizes effective and ethical rhetorical inquiry, including primary and secondary research methods; critical reading of verbal, visual, and multimedia texts (including artistic literature); systematic evaluation, synthesis, and documentation of information sources; and critical thinking about evidence and conclusions including the application of these to literature. Prerequisite: ENGL 1301 with a "C" or better. (3:0).

II. Course Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of the course, the student will be able to accomplish the following.

- A. Refine and extend composition, reading, research and logic skills.
- B. Engage in critical thinking skills, creative thinking, innovation, and inquiry, and demonstrate analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information.
- C. Effectively use information resources such as libraries, field research, experts, and mass media.
- D. Demonstrate effective written, oral, and/or visual communication skills.
- E. Organize research data and commentary to develop an effective and unique thesis.
- F. Compose an acceptable research paper including proper use of sources according to the current MLA, APA, and/or a current scientific format.
- G. Use of appropriate literary terminology.
- H. Exhibit analytical insight and appreciation of two literary types (short stories, poetry, drama, film, or novel).
- I. Write a minimum of two competent critical essays or equivalent writings with an interpretive/analytical emphasis.
- J. Demonstrate personal responsibility skills including the ability to connect choices, actions, and consequences to ethical decision-making.

- K. (Recommended) Attend or view at least one interpretive performance of a piece of literature (poetry, reading, play, film, etc.).

III. THECB Learning Outcomes (ACGM)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of individual and collaborative research processes.
2. Develop ideas and synthesize primary and secondary sources within focused academic arguments, including one or more research-based essays.
3. Analyze, interpret, and evaluate a variety of texts for the ethical and logical uses of evidence.
4. Write in a style that clearly communicates meaning, builds credibility, and inspires belief or action.
5. Apply the conventions of style manuals for specific academic disciplines (e.g., APA, CMS, MLA, etc.)

IV. Evaluation

A. Pre-assessment

Instructors should check each student's prerequisites the first week of class. Those who do not qualify should be sent back to Admissions.

B. Post-assessment

1. The research project will count fifty percent of the course grade. This part of the grade should reflect evaluation of the various research steps as well as the final paper itself. It is up to the individual instructor to decide how much weight these preparatory steps will carry, but under no circumstances should the instructor base the entire research grade solely on the completed final product.
2. The assignments on literature will count for the other fifty percent of the course grade.
3. The instructor is required to schedule an appropriate activity for the final exam period. The completed research paper and critical analyses should be sufficient to demonstrate mastery of course content. The following are some suggested uses of the final exam period.
 - a. Students take an exam over assigned literature selections.
 - b. Students give oral presentations, which summarize their research projects.
 - c. Students write or submit a third literary paper such as an analysis or other interpretive writing based on a film, live performance, or novel.
 - d. Students view an appropriate audio-visual presentation.
 - e. Students meet with the instructor to review course work.

4. Plagiarism is both intellectual theft and academic dishonesty and will not be tolerated. Any work that is plagiarized could result in failure of the course. See the Student Handbook.

C. Remediation

1. Revision of research papers shall be allowed at the discretion of the instructor.
2. A critical analysis which is evaluated by the instructor as unsatisfactory may be rewritten at the discretion of the instructor.
3. Students needing assistance with writing problems should contact the instructor. Assistance is also available through the Writing Centers or other programs located at most of the campuses.
4. Make-up work and retakes of quizzes may be provided at the instructor's discretion.

D. Grading Percentages:

Grade percentages for determining a final grade may be revised by the individual instructor, but should approximate the following proportions: research 50% and literature 50%.

E. Grading Scale

A	=	90 – 100	I	=	Incomplete
B	=	80 - 89	W	=	Withdrew or Withdrawn
C	=	70 - 79
D	=	60 - 69
F	=	below 60

V. Disability Statement (Americans with/Disabilities Act [ADA])

EPCC offers a variety of services to persons with documented sensory, mental, physical, or temporary disabling conditions to promote success in classes. If you have a disability and believe you may need services, you are encouraged to contact the Center for Students with Disabilities to discuss your needs with a counselor. All discussions and documentation are kept confidential. Offices located: VV Rm C-112 (831-2426); TM Rm 1400 (831-5808); RG Rm B-201 (831-4198); NWC Rm M-54 (831-8815); and MDP Rm A-125 (831-7024).

VI. 6 Drop Rule

Students who began attending Texas public institutions of higher education for the first time during the Fall 2007 semester or later are subject to a 6-Drop limit for all undergraduate classes. Developmental, ESL, Dual Credit and Early College High School classes are exempt from this rule. All students should consult with their instructor before dropping a class. Academic assistance is available. Students are encouraged to see Counseling Services if dropping because exemptions may apply. Refer to the EPCC catalog and website for additional information.

VII. Title IX and Sex Discrimination

Title 9 (20 U.S.C. 1681 & 34 C.F.R. Part 106) states the following "No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any educational program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance." The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) prohibits stalking, date violence, sexual violence, and domestic violence for all students, employees and visitors (male and female). If you have any concerns related to discrimination, harassment, or assault (of any type) you can contact the Assistant to the Vice President for Student and Enrollment Services at 915-831-2655. Employees can call the Manager of Employee Relations at 915-831-6458. Reports of sexual assault/violence may also be reported to EPCC Police at 915-831-2200.

Schedule

Make sure you check the schedule consistently and keep up with work in the class. Do not count on the Blackboard calendar instead of this schedule.

I will post weekly "What's Going On" videos and link those on the Announcements page. They are short and give you tips and important information for the week. It is important that you make sure to watch those.

We work on a weekly schedule and I run weeks from Tuesday to Monday, excluding the first week and finals week. That means that in general weekly things are due by Monday midnight. Anything that has a due date other than Monday midnight, will be clearly marked. There are a few of those on the schedule, so each week read ahead so you know what's coming up.

You have readings that are both online and in the Writer's Reference. See the Instructor Policy section of the syllabus for information on the Writer's Reference.

Feb. 25 – Mar. 2 Week 6	NOTES: Remember, if you want to get writing center extra credit, you need to go at least one day before the draft is due. I HIGHLY recommend you go to the writing center. Don't wait until the last minute. It's first come, first served at campus locations, and the online writing center requires a 48 hour turnaround time. Your work doesn't have to be done to get some feedback on it. They can help you with what you have, and that will help as you go forward. The same goes for workshop. <hr/> Read Online <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> From Annotated Bibliography to Draft (video) <input type="checkbox"/> Sample Research Essay: Stigma Busters (video) <input type="checkbox"/> Research Assignment: Workshop-Draft pp 9-18 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ As you work on your draft, use the grading criteria to make sure you're doing these things.
