

Name: _____

Date: _____

INRW 0311: Summary/Response Outline

#:

SUMMARY NOTES
Author
Title
Source
Type of Writing You may check more than one.	<input type="checkbox"/> Argument: to show how the author sees it <input type="checkbox"/> Expository: to express feelings, events, or experience <input type="checkbox"/> Instructions <input type="checkbox"/> Persuasive: to convince readers <input type="checkbox"/> Analytical/Evaluation: What something means between the lines or when looked at very closely, how valuable or what quality it is, or how it compares to other things of its kind. <input type="checkbox"/> Sample <input type="checkbox"/> Other (describe here):
Main overall point in your own words. Write a long sentence or a few sentences here. Include the title (properly formatted) and the author(s) name(s).
An interesting, powerful, surprising, or notable thing the author says or points out. Quote it and give the page number, or if you don't have it the paragraph number. Add in any thoughts about it.
Another interesting, powerful, surprising, or notable thing the author says or points out. Quote it and give the page number, or if you don't have it the paragraph number. Add in any thoughts about it.

RESPONSE

Here, use some of the ideas on the left to get you started. Remember, your response is about thinking about the text and how you relate to it, how it applies, or in general just sharing the ideas it gave you as you read, whether you disagreed or agreed and why. So, just brainstorm ideas here. You can choose what you focus on and smooth it out later.

What things do you agree with in this reading

AND/OR

Are there things you disagree with in this reading?

AND/OR

Are there things you can relate to in your experience? If so, explain what they are and tell about something that you've experienced that shows that.

AND/OR

Are there things you disagree with in this reading? If so, explain what they are and tell about something that you've experienced that shows that.

CITATION